Left to die?

هاجر ليموت؟
Solidarity in the Mediterranean

On April 2011, 63 migrants died in a boat in the waters off the coast of Libya. Military forces of several states were present in Libyan waters at that time. They received migrants’ SOS. But no one assisted them. With support of a coalition of NGOs including BOATS4PEOPLE, several survivors from the boat convened in Paris to file a court case, supplemented by a report of the project FORENSIC OCEANOGRAPHY, against the French Army for non-assistance to people in distress at sea. WATCHTHEMED is part of the campaign, which aims to bring an end to the death of migrants at sea and foster solidarity between both sides of the Mediterranean. Assisting migrants at sea is not a crime, it is a duty.

Disapeared?!
Since 2011, at least 270 Tunisian migrants who tried to reach Italy disappeared. A group of Tunisian families of missing relatives, together with several organisations in Tunisia and Italy, have requested that the Public Prosecutor’s Office in Rome opens an investigation into their fate. Their action follows the campaign »From one coast to the other: lives that count«, led by The Female Collective LE VENTICINQUE UNDICI (The twenty-five eleven), that consists of the migrants relatives who have not received contact to their missing family members for over a year. The families don’t want to resign themselves to the idea that their beloved ones just disappeared. Did they ever reach Italy? Have they been pushed back? Some family members are convinced that they have seen their sons on Italian ground on Italian television. They need answers.

Voices from Choucha

More than 3000 migrants, who fled the war in Libya in 2011 – most of them from Subsahara Africa – are still living under inhuman conditions in the refugee camp Choucha (Tunisia) near the Libyan border. A part of them has been accepted as refugees and they are waiting for resettlement, another part is waiting for the UNHCR decision to be accepted. At least several hundreds are denied any status, and for a lot of newcomers, among them many boat people who were pushed back, no procedures will be opened. A process of selforganisation and protests has started in the recent months under the name »Voice of Choucha«. Boats4People supports their struggle and demands from EU-governments to open their borders for the migrants and refugees from Choucha and elsewhere!

Freedom not Frontex
The Boats4People Project

In 2011 the number of migrants’ deaths in the Mediterranean sea reached a record level, with more than 1800 people losing their lives fleeing Tunisia and Libya only. These deaths are first and foremost the product of the EU’s denial of legal entry, forcing migrants and refugees to resort to clandestine and dangerous means of crossing. Frontex, the EU border agency, is coordinating and intensifying the repressive and deathly system of migration-control even beyond EU-borders. B4P resists to this injust policy and demands freedom of movement for everybody. B4P supports the Harragas and all transitmigrants and -refugees in their struggles for political and social rights.

وبعد أعداد الوفيات بين المهاجرين في عام 2011، حيث يفوق عدد القتلى الـ 1800 شخص من بين المهاجرين من تونس ولبيا فقط. هذه الوفيات هي نتيجة لرفض دول الاتحاد الأوروبي إعطاء تصريحات نظامية لدخولها، مما يجعل المهاجرين واللاجئين أن يختاروا طرقاً خطرة للعبور بالخفية. فرونتكس، وكالة أمن الحدود الأوروبية، تقوم بتنسيق وتقديم نظام التحكم بالهجرة القمعي القاتل حتى خارج حدود أوروبا. قارب للناس يقاوم هذه السياسة الغير عادلة ويطلّب بحرية التنقل لأي إنسان. قارب للناس يدعم الحرارة وكل المهاجرين المحاولين العبور واللاجئين في نضالهم للحصول على حقوق سياسية واجتماعية.
